SUMMARY

Currently an undergraduate student at National Forensic Science University Gandhinagar GUJ. with a successful academic background including clearing the Indian Institutes of Technology (IIT) entrance exam in 2024. Currently working on a research project in financial behaviour under a faculty mentor and enrolled in the Infosys Springboard internship program to enhance analytical and digital skills. I have gained practical experience in human resource management and digital marketing through my roles as an HR Manager at Intellisoft Company and a Digital Marketing Manager handling social media operations. Additionally, I have contributed as a content writer for reputable media websites such as Repute Media and Repute Today, focusing on accurate and well-researched report writing. With strong skills in digital tools like Canva and Adobe, as well as proficiency in Google Workspace, I aim to apply my multidisciplinary knowledge and hands-on experience to a professional environment that values precision, creativity, and effective communication.
